

Sept. 16, 1941.

Western Union Telegraph Co.,
832 Broad St.,
Newark, N. J.

Gentlemen:

On August 20, 1941 I wired a Money Order for six dollars($6.00) to James Hill, in care of the Colored Y. M. C. A. Indianapolis, Ind. Mr. Hill left Indianapolis before the money order was delivered, as a result it was returned to Newark. Your Company telephone me and asked me to bring Mr. Hill in to collect the amount.

Mr. Hill was out of the town most of the time with the Baseball Team, and I was sick in bed on and off. Our Baseball season is now over and Mr. Hill has returned to his home in Lakeland, Fla., as a result I will have to ask you to please mail me a check for the six dollars. I am the one who sent it originally from Newark.

Thanking you for your co-operation. I am sorry if this procedure will cause any inconvenience.

Very truly yours,

EM:CCJ